

HOW TO APPLY FOR TRANSITIONAL HOUSING

To request an application for DVPI Transitional Housing please contact the Transitional Housing Coordinator at 330-455-2000 ext 268. Completed applications can be mailed to:

Domestic Violence Project
P.O. Box 9459
Canton, OH 44711-9459
Attn: Transitional Housing
Coordinator

Once the Transitional Housing Program receives your application, it will be reviewed and the applicant will be contacted within 3 business days. If you are eligible, we will set up a time to meet and get to know each other better, to determine whether this is a good fit. This meeting will take place at Renew Counseling and Recovery Center to ensure privacy. If we don't currently have space in Transitional Housing but you are interested in being placed on a waiting list, you can let us know when we contact you.

OUR MISSION:

Domestic Violence Project, Inc. (DVPI) Transitional Housing Program is designed to assist survivors of domestic violence, sexual assault, stalking and dating violence to gain economic stability, build a life independent of their abuser and achieve their personal goals. We strive to meet this mission by providing comprehensive support options including housing assistance and a variety of practical and emotional support options. Services are offered, regardless of ability to pay, and are provided in an atmosphere of respect, dignity, cultural sensitivity and confidentiality.

MAKING A DIFFERENCE

“The Transitional Housing program was a well timed blessing in my journey to a healthy life. It was the help and assurance I needed - a safe space and the confidence to not fall back into a bad situation.”
Transitional Housing client.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA:

Determination of acceptance into Transitional Housing will be made on a case by case basis through consideration of the following minimum criteria and guidelines.

Applicant must be:
